

TORONTO 2015 PAN AM/PARAPAN AM GAMES' ROAD CLOSURES

All closure and reopening timings are subject to change.

Wednesday, July 8: 60-minute training closure

- 10 a.m. to 11 a.m.: Closure of Lake Shore Boulevard, from Ontario Place to Parkside Drive, for triathlon athletes to familiarize themselves with the course.

Thursday, July 9: 60-minute training closure

- 10 a.m. to 11 a.m.: Closure of Lake Shore Boulevard, from Ontario Place to Parkside Drive, for triathlon athletes to familiarize themselves with the course.

Friday, July 10: construction closure for temporary structures (Transition zone, finish gantry, etc.)

- 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.: Curb lane of eastbound traffic on Lake Shore Boulevard between British Columbia Drive and Ontario Place parking lots.
- 10 p.m.: Full closure of eastbound Lake Shore Boulevard between British Columbia Drive and Ontario Place parking lots.

Saturday, July 11: triathlon competition (women's)

Race runs from 8:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

- 1 a.m.: Full closure of Lake Shore Boulevard between Parkside Drive and Ontario Place parking lots.
- Lake Shore Boulevard between Parkside Drive and Net Drive (one eastbound lane) will remain open using a counterflow system (no through traffic – local access only) so that businesses and residents have access.
- 2 p.m.: Full reopening of all westbound lanes on Lake Shore Boulevard.

Sunday, July 12: triathlon competition (men's)

Race runs from 8:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

- 1 a.m.: Full closure of Lake Shore Boulevard between Parkside Drive and Ontario Place parking lots.
- Lake Shore Boulevard between Parkside Drive and Net Drive (one eastbound lane) will remain open using a counterflow system (no through traffic – local access only) so that businesses and residents have access.

- 2 p.m.: Full reopening of all eastbound and westbound lanes on Lake Shore Boulevard.

Saturday, July 18: marathon competition (women's)

Race runs from 7 a.m. to 11 a.m.

- 1 a.m.: Full closure of Lake Shore Boulevard from Parkside Drive to Strachan Avenue. Full closure of Parkside Drive between Lake Shore Boulevard and High Park Road, and roads in High Park (Colborne Lodge Drive, Centre Road).
- Lake Shore Boulevard between Parkside Drive and Net Drive (one eastbound lane) will remain open using a counterflow system (no through traffic – local access only) so that businesses and residents have access.
- 2 p.m.: Full reopening of all eastbound and westbound lanes on Lake Shore Boulevard, Parkside Drive and roads in High Park (Colborne Lodge Drive, Centre Road).

Sunday, July 19: race walk (men's and women's 20-kilometre race)

Race runs from 7 a.m. to noon

- 1 a.m.: Full closure of all eastbound and westbound lanes on Lake Shore Boulevard between British Columbia Drive and Strachan Avenue.

Local access only past Strachan Avenue. All others, including spectators, will need to show their Games event ticket to gain access beyond this point.

- 2 p.m.: Full reopening of all eastbound and westbound lanes on Lake Shore Boulevard.

Friday, July 24: Two-hour road cycling and marathon training closure

- 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.: Road closures for athletes to familiarize themselves with the course.
- The closures will affect eastbound and westbound lanes on Lake Shore Boulevard from Parkside Drive to Strachan Avenue, Parkside Drive, High Park Boulevard, Centre Road, Colborne Lodge Drive, West Road, westbound lanes of the Queensway between Colborne Lodge Drive and Ellis Avenue (two-way traffic will run in the eastbound lanes), Ellis Avenue, Ellis Park Road, Olympus Avenue, Harcourt Road, and eastbound on Bloor Street between Harcourt and Parkside Drive.

Saturday, July 25: marathon competition (men's) and cycling – road race (men's and women's)

Marathon runs from 7 a.m. to 11 a.m., with road cycling following from 1 p.m. to 8:45 p.m.

- 1 a.m.: The closures will affect eastbound and westbound lanes on Lake Shore Boulevard from Parkside Drive to Strachan Avenue, Parkside Drive, High Park Boulevard, Centre Road, Colborne Lodge Drive, West Road, westbound lanes of the Queensway between Colborne Lodge Drive and Ellis Avenue (two-way traffic will run in the eastbound lanes), Ellis Avenue, Ellis Park Road, Olympus Avenue, Harcroft Road, and eastbound on Bloor Street between Harcroft and Parkside Drive.
- Lake Shore Boulevard between Parkside Drive and Net Drive (one eastbound lane) will remain open using a counterflow system (no through traffic – local access only) so that businesses and residents have access.
- 10 p.m.: Full reopening

Sunday, July 26: race walk (men’s 50-kilometre race)

Race runs from 7 a.m. to noon

- 1 a.m.: Full closure of all eastbound and westbound lanes on Lake Shore Boulevard between British Columbia Drive and Strachan Ave.

Local access only past Strachan Avenue. All others, including spectators, will need to show their Games event ticket to gain access beyond this point.

- 2 p.m.: Full reopening of all eastbound and westbound lanes on Lake Shore Boulevard.

Friday, August 7: two-hour Parapan Am road cycling training closure

- 11 a.m.: The closures will affect eastbound and westbound lanes on Lake Shore Boulevard, Parkside Drive, High Park Boulevard, Centre Road, Colborne Lodge Drive, West Road, westbound lanes of the Queensway between Colborne Lodge Drive and Ellis Avenue (two-way traffic will run in the eastbound lanes), Ellis Avenue, Ellis Park Road, and eastbound on Bloor Street between Ellis Park Road and Parkside Drive.
- Lake Shore Boulevard between Parkside Drive and Net Drive (one eastbound lane) will remain open using a counterflow system (no through traffic – local access only) so that businesses and residents have access.
- 1 p.m.: Full reopening of all roads.

Saturday, August 8: Parapan Am cycling – road race (men’s and women’s)

Race runs from 9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

- 1 a.m.: The closures will take affect eastbound and westbound lanes on Lake Shore Boulevard from Parkside Drive to Strachan Avenue, Parkside Drive, High Park Blvd, Centre Road, Colborne

Lodge Drive, West Road, westbound lanes of the Queensway between Colborne Lodge Drive and Ellis Avenue (two-way traffic will run in the eastbound lanes), Ellis Avenue, Ellis Park Road, and eastbound on Bloor Street between Ellis Park Road and Parkside Drive.

- Lake Shore Boulevard between Parkside Drive and Net Drive (one eastbound lane) will remain open using a counterflow system (no through traffic – local access only) so that businesses and residents have access.
- 6 p.m.: Full reopening of all roads.

The regulatory changes required to facilitate these closures will be recommended to Toronto City Council early in the New Year.